

Yes, There is TOO much violence on TV! My kids are exposed to too much, even just turning the channels. Do something about it! We need better morals and values to be present instead of the trash that is on so many channels. As a mother and a part of society, I feel the violence on TV is a big factor in the violent behavior of youth all across America.

Thank you, Susan Culmo